

ENDANGERED LIST

- VERSE 1: Soaring high above the trees - symbol of our nation
An eagle proud and free - silhouetted by the sun
Below another freeway - threatens his freedom to exist
He's the undisputed ruler - of the endangered list
- VERSE 2: A wolf cries in the forest - her voice echoes through the trees
A cry of desperation - cuts the air and rustles all the leaves
She's caught an angry bullet - from a rifle trained to never miss
Carve another notch - on the endangered list
- CHORUS 1: But who's to blame
How'd we ever come to this
Add another name
To the endangered list
- BREAK: Music = verse
- VERSE 3: There's a grounded ship - off the coast of Morocco
The captain must have slipped - now her black cargo flows
But it's too late to say we're sorry - the spirits of the underworld hiss
Dump another ocean - on the endangered list
- CHORUS 2: But who's to blame
We pound our angry fists
And add another name
To the endangered list
- BREAK: Music = verse
- VERSE 4: Now there's an avalanche of trouble - and it's rolling our way
And if we are not careful - there'll be no time to pray
While the backfires burn - the tables turn an unexpected twist
And we find ourselves - at the top of the endangered list
- CHORUS: Repeat chorus 1 w/tag:
