

PIN THE TAIL ON THE WORLD

VERSE 1: He's turning five years old today
 He's got the donkey's tail in his hand
 Blindfold over his eyes
 It's a ritual he doesn't quite understand
 But mother's got him by the shoulders
 The children try to tell him which way to go
 His father smiles behind the camera
 Laughing when he pins the tail on the donkey's nose

CHORUS 1: Left from right - right from wrong
 His head is spinning screaming boys and girls
 Life is short - and it won't be long
 And he'll be off to pin the tail on the world

VERSE 2: It's her first prom night and she's ready to go
 Her lipstick is black there's a ring in her nose
 She checks her tattoo making sure it shows
 It's a ritual her parents don't even wanna know
 But she's still her mother's baby child
 Though she's a woman now that can't be denied
 Her father tries not to look disturbed
 When the rebel on the motorcycle picks 'er up at the curb

 She once chased the donkey in her ribbons and curls
 Life is short - and it won't be long
 And she'll be off to pin the tail on the world ...hey!

BREAK: music = verse

 Your head is spinning screaming boys and girls
 Life is short - and it won't be long
 And they'll be off to pin the tail on the world
